

Vail Mountain Rescue Group Spring Academy

Team Orientation / Search and Rescue Training

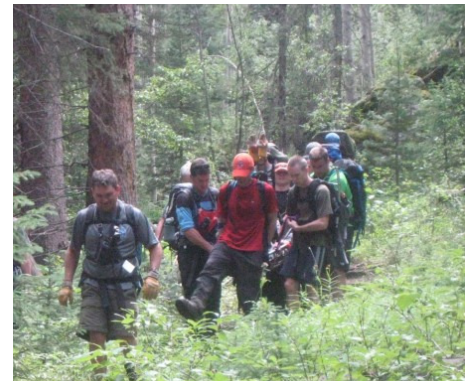

Begins Sunday May 31 at 5pm

Vail Mountain Rescue Group is currently recruiting for the following:

Team Members	Requires strong backcountry skills to support full range of search and rescue missions throughout the year. Members participate in all aspects of team operations. Academy includes team orientation and initial training for new team members
Search Resource Members	Requires strong hiking ability and general backcountry knowledge. Members will be trained to effectively participate in large scale search operations for lost and overdue parties throughout the spring, summer, and fall.. Academy includes all training to participate as a search team member

To attend please RSVP to info@vailmountainrescue.com

Please include your name, phone, email, and background

Academy Schedule

Sunday May 31 5pm - 7pm	Colorado Mountain College, Edwards	Presentation - Team Orientation. Who we are? What we do? How to become a member of the Team.
Monday June 8 6pm - 8pm	Eagle County Ambulance District Edwards	Search Theory, Working on a Search Team, Navigation, Communications
Monday June 15 6pm - 8pm	Eagle County Ambulance District Edwards	Vail Mountain Rescue Team Techniques and Equipment.
Saturday June 20 9am - 1pm	VMRG Cache, Edwards Will travel to Search Area	Participate in an actual Backcountry Search . Practice new skills. Work with current team members.